WELCOME TO THE TABLE OF OUR LORD

We invite those who share with us in the fellowship of faith to come to the Lord's altar and receive, in the Holy Communion, the very body and blood of Jesus. Our Lord Jesus has given us His Holy Supper so that we might receive into our very lives His body and blood, under the elements of bread and wine, for the remission of our sins and thereby know in a physical, tangible way that we are forgiven and have eternal life through faith in Him.

Each who comes to the Table of our Lord should:

- ◆ Be a Baptized Child of God;
- ◆ Have received scriptural instruction in Christ's means of meeting us in this Sacrament;
- ◆ Examine themselves by confessing their sins to God;
 - a. 1 Corinthians 11:26-29
 - b. Lutheran Service Book, p. 329
- ◆ Believe in Jesus as Savior and Lord from sin and death and who delivers us from the power of the devil;
- ◆ Desire the Holy Spirit's power to turn away from sin and live a Christ-like life;
- ◆ Recognize the Real Presence of Christ's body and blood (under the elements of bread and wine) for the forgiveness of sins.

If you are uncertain or have questions concerning your participation, please ask to speak with an elder, our pastor or an usher. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request. Alcohol-removed wine is in the center of the tray. Children and adults desiring to receive a blessing should cross their arms while at the communion rail.

WELCOME IN THE NAME OF JESUS

Setting One

“See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.” Matthew 18:10 (NIV)

Prelude

Words of Preparation

In ancient times, children were not necessarily presented as the picture of “angelic innocence” we sometimes portray them as today. Children were seen as weak, vulnerable, and unable to help themselves. That is precisely why Jesus asks us to become like children! He asks us to recognize our sinfulness, our weakness, and our helplessness. Then He declares we “are great”! Greatness is total dependence on the Great One! He lifts us up in His arms. We receive His forgiveness. We rely on His strength. He is our ever present help. He cherishes His children!

Invocation

Matthew 28:19b; 18:20

- P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

Confession and Absolution

- P Jesus said that we must “change and become like little children” if we are going to enter the kingdom of heaven. Like little children who are helpless to do anything for themselves, we are helpless to solve the problem of sin in our lives. Let us become like little children before our heavenly Father and confess our sins to Him, acknowledging our dependence on His mercy.

- C Father, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We confess we have had sinful thoughts, we have spoken sinful and hurtful words, we have done shameful things, and we have failed to do things that are good. We have lived as if we are not Your children. Like little children, we are helpless to save ourselves from Your just punishment. But we know that through Jesus You have promised to hear us and to forgive us. Therefore, in His name, we beg for Your mercy.

Psalm 103:13

- P “As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him”. God has had compassion on you. Jesus took the punishment you deserved. God’s justice has been satisfied. You have been declared His forgiven children. Therefore, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

- C Amen! We are God’s children!

Please remain standing as you are able.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 30:11–20

¹¹“For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. ¹²It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ ¹³Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ ¹⁴But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.

¹⁵“See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil. ¹⁶If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his rules, then you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take possession of it. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish. You shall not live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to enter and possess. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, ²⁰loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Ephesians 6:10-20

¹⁰Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. ¹¹Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. ¹²For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. ¹⁴Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. ¹⁶In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; ¹⁷and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, ¹⁸praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ¹⁹and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Hymn of the Day

Life Is a Gift from God

(tune: LSB 525 Crown Him with Many Crowns)

1. Life is a gift from God, who ordered all my days
And wrote them in His book of life, so I could give Him praise!
He guards and still preserves, that life He gave to me,
And loves me with a Father's love and will eternally!
2. Life is a Holy gift, which God alone can give.
He sets before us death and life, choose life that you might live!
For God has sent His Son, who could have come a king,
But chose a mother's womb instead, eternal life to bring.
3. Life is the gift of God, so Jesus did partake;
And took upon our human form, his heirs He did us make!
When we were being knit, He knew who we would be
And marked us as His very own, his death has set us free!

☩ I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life ✠ everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the Church - Prayer lists are available in the narthex.

Prayers

- P Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.
- P For the holy Christian Church gathered here and scattered throughout the world, that in the face of sinfulness and suffering, we find our entire life and hope in the Lord Jesus Christ, and that our ministry and witness steadfastly hold forth this Gospel of forgiveness and salvation, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For this land, that its leaders and laws resist temptations to allow or employ death as a solution, but instead, as instruments of the Almighty Maker, they respect and protect the hope and preciousness intrinsic to every human being, particularly those endangered by abortion, assisted suicide, and other such satanic deceptions, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For our communities and schools, that by God's guidance they pursue truth rather than public approval, civil discourse rather than demands, and the common good rather than convenience, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For marriages and homes, parents and children, that they remain refuges of hope for one another, embodying and mediating the same acceptance and servanthood the Heavenly Father has bestowed in establishing these blessed vocations for us, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For those burdened under distress and despair, including all who mourn sins against life, that our Redeemer raise their eyes to receive peace in God's forgiveness and cradle their hearts until Christ's compassion heals them, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For those dealing with diseases, disabilities, or dying, (especially [names] from among our number,) that our Savior's grace grants them relief and recovery in His time and according to His will, and that He strengthens them with the promise of bodily resurrection and sustains them in the hope of everlasting life, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For those rejoicing in God's rich life-giving, that we mark these occasions as tokens of a fuller hope in the new creation and we hail them as foretastes of our even greater inheritance in Christ Jesus, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P Into Your hands, O Lord, we commend ourselves and all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy, through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
- C Amen.

All Life Is Precious
(tune: LSB 461 I Know My Redeemer Lives)

1. All life is precious in His sight;
He loves both young and old alike.
He knit us all within the womb.
And saves us from eternal doom.
2. His gift of love is ours to share;
He bids us spread it everywhere.
The world will know us by our love;
As angels sing for joy above.

His power will conquer in this strife.
Our trust is in the Lord of hosts.
